

March 1, 2010

Dear Sir / Madame:

The International Trade Council of Greater Kansas City (ITC) is pleased to announce its 2010 Scholarship competition. This year the ITC's Scholarship Committee will award one scholarship as described in the attached announcement to an outstanding student pursuing international studies. We request that you post this announcement in the appropriate locations within your respective institutions.

The ITC is the leading professional organization in Greater Kansas City dedicated to the furthering of international trade in the Missouri Valley. The members of ITC represent the area's leading international manufacturing, financial, and service organizations involved in international commerce.

We ask that you post and make known to qualifying students the attached announcements for the 2010 International Trade Council Scholarship competition for those with a focus in international business or studies. An application form is also attached. Applications may also be requested from the ITC office at 816-235-6654, by fax at 913 235-2947 or at info@itckc.org.

We would appreciate your assistance in identifying qualified students and encouraging them to apply for the award. Thank you for informing your students of these scholarships. We look forward to working with you on this important effort.

Yours very truly,

Scholarship Committee
