INTERNATIONAL TRADE COUNCIL
of Greater Kansas City

INTERNATIONAL TRADE COUNCIL of Greater Kansas City, Inc.

Mission

Founded in 1944, the International Trade Council's mission is to promote global commerce through focused education and networking. The ITC seeks to support entrepreneurs and businesses in the Greater Kansas City area to compete successfully in the world market and strengthen our local industries.

The ITC's efforts were recognized in 1990 through the President's "E" Certificate for Export Service. The ITC continues to contribute to the United States of America's Export Expansion Program by facilitating trade awareness through educational efforts.

Members

The International Trade Council members represent a variety of manufacturers and service providers involved in such fields as banking, agribusiness, communications, law, transportation, consulting, education, government, translation, and other industries immersed in global commerce.

Join the ITC!

Whether you are new to the international arena or have conducted business overseas for years, the International Trade Council is a valuable asset to you and your organization. As Greater Kansas City's link to the global market, the ITC offers diverse programs, seminars and activities to assist in your international business success.

Activities

The ITC provides modular, self-contained seminars and meetings that address topics within world trade and economics related to exporting, importing, and country specific influences.

Breakfast Meetings

The ITC breakfast meetings feature prominent local, national, and international speakers each month. The meetings focus on current issues involving International trade activities.

Educational Seminars

The ITC educational seminars highlight outstanding programs and knowledgeable speakers who are experts in matters pertaining to global commerce. The seminars provide the latest information on an assortment of topics that vary each month.

World Trade Series (WTS)

The WTS celebrates World Trade Week by offering in-depth presentations, one-on-one opportunities, and educational and cultural activities, as well as special meetings to foster trade with a particular country or region of the world.

Website

ITC website allows members to create a personalized profile and access the Association Mall which provides discounts from online retailers. The ITC also has a job board for companies and job seekers that is geared toward international business opportunities.

Membership Benefits

The International Trade Council benefits trade professionals by fostering greater understanding of worldwide business practices and highlighting strategic methods to enhance the expansion of our regional industries.

Members Only

The ITC recognizes outstanding members that have demonstrated exceptional performance in international trade at our annual awards banquet
